With a new baby to look after, Kate Middleton is going to have a busy Christmas on her hands.

But it appears the queen of yummy mummies is determined to still be a goddess in the kitchen - and put on a Christmas dinner for all the family as well.

Last year, Prince William broke with royal tradition for the first time, choosing to spend Christmas with his wife rather than stay at Sandringham with the Queen.

It is unclear what will happen this year, but this picture will no doubt fuel speculation that the Duchess of Cambridge wants to play hostess once again.

She was 'pictured' getting tips from the foul-mouthed chef and is said to be a big fan.
